

ASSOCIATION OF ANABAPTIST MISSIOLOGISTS

December 7-9, 2000

SCHEDULE

Thursday

- 3-7:30 p.m. Registration (seminary building gathering area, 2nd floor)
- 7:30 Worship
- 7:45-8:30 Opening session
- Overview of weekend
 - Getting acquainted

Friday

- 8:15 a.m. Worship
- 8:30 “The contribution of Anabaptist mission thinking and practice to the larger church” – Jonathan Bonk
- Response and further reflections – Myron Augsburger, Nancy Heisey, Art McPhee
 - Open discussion
- 10 Break
- 10:30 “Methods and curriculum for teaching missions from an Anabaptist perspective” – Linford Stutzman
- Response and further reflections – C. Norman Kraus, Calvin Shenk, Walter Sawatsky, Lawrence Yoder
 - Open discussion
- 12 p.m. Lunch
- 2 Participant round-robin: “Cutting-edge ‘mission stuff’ for me right now”
- Research projects
 - Lectures in preparation
 - Teaching opportunities
 - Half-baked writing projects
 - Mission questions I need to explore
 - My latest publication(s) - Please bring copies for “Show and Tell!”
- 4:30 Dinner (with ample time for informal networking)

- 7-8:50 The Late-Night Show: "Videos I use in the classroom or in mission education settings that others need to know about"
- (Participants are invited to bring a 5- to 10-minute favorite clip for presentation and explanation to the whole group.)*
- 8:50-9 Day-end prayers
- Saturday
- 8:15 a.m. Worship
- 8:30-10 Anabaptist missiology projects in process
- Mission Focus Annual Review: 8 years and 100 articles later – Walter Sawatsky
 - "Urban Theology from an Anabaptist Perspective:" Report from November 2000 gathering
 - Updating the 1984 bibliography on "Mennonite Missions" – Chad Bauman
 - An Anthology of Anabaptist-Mennonite Writings on Missions: A Proposal – James Krabill
- 10 Break
- 10:30 Looking back/looking forward
- Follow-up on "projects in progress" (bibliography, anthology)
 - Expansion of AAM network
 - Plans for January 2002 meeting (location, theme, featured guests, etc.)
 - Plans for 2003 (location, themes, projects, etc.)
 - Other agenda
- 11:50-12 p.m. Prayers for the road