6 Books to Read Before “PA 2015”

What We Believe Together
by Alfred Neufeld
This book is currently the most popular book among Mennonite-related peoples around the world (it’s been translated into numerous languages).
You and your congregation (or small group or Sunday School class) are invited to be part of this international reading and discussion group!
Note the special event on January 12 devoted to this book. Please consider attending.

Global Mennonite History Series

For the first time ever, after many years of international planning and work, here is a five-volume set [a book for the churches of each continent], written by members of churches on those continents. Join these book discussions and prepare for “PA 2015”:
• Testing Faith and Tradition: October 26
• Mission and Migration: November 23
• Anabaptist Songs in African Hearts: March 15
• Churches Engage Asian Traditions: April 19
• Seeking Places of Peace: May 17

All 6 of these books are available from the Bookshop and Online Book Service of Lancaster Mennonite Historical Society [lmhs.org, 717/393-9745].
Quantity discounts available from LMHS.
