WEEKEND OF PRAYER AND ACTION AGAINST HUNGER JOINT ECUMENICAL ACTION

Right now 41 million vulnerable people are at risk of experiencing famine due to a deadly mix of conflict, climate change and COVID-19's devastating economic impacts. On 16-17 October, Christian churches and development actors will join together in prayer and action in recognition of a worsening global hunger crisis.

Join us

Christians around the world are coming together for a weekend of prayer and action against hunger. Talk to your family and dedicate a meal Saturday, and then pray with your congregation Sunday during a special service.
