GLOBAL ANABAPTIST PRIMARY SECONDARY EDUCATION NETWORK (GAPSEN)
MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

The Global Anabaptist Primary Secondary Education Network of MWC focuses on schools serving students from Early Childhood through High School.

Membership:

Schools that self-identify as Anabaptist and are committed to the MWC Shared Convictions are invited to join.

Anabaptist-oriented networks of schools as well as Anabaptist scholars and teachers who work outside of an Anabaptist school are also welcome to join.

Members:

- Share best practices.
- Promote collaboration on curricula or other resources.
- Promote exchanges of teachers, students and resources.
- Create occasional events to facilitate relationships and networks and showcase education practices and models.
- Increase awareness and understanding of global Anabaptist education activities.
- Cultivate a shared educational vision between schools and church.

In pursuit of these goals,
GAPSEN:

- Hosts occasional webinars for members to connect, learn, and become better equipped to fulfill their mission.
- Plans in-person gatherings every three years.
- Supports regional initiatives for gathering and learning.
- Shares news and resources that inform, equip and inspire.
- Connects and collaborates with the Faith and Life Commission.
